

“Land Use Planning in Honolulu, City and Country A 30 year Retrospect and Iliahi’s symbolic Prospect”

by

Leigh Wai Doo, CC of Honolulu, Councilperson in the Planning and ZONING years 1983-1995

Wednesday October 17, 2013; 10:00a.m.-11:45 a.m. Saunders Hall Room 116

Atty Ret. Leigh-Wai Doo : Harvard Law School JD'71, Columbia College AB '68, ACParis '66
Chair, Planning and Zoning as a Honolulu City Councilmember 1983 to 1995
Second City, Mixed Use Communities, Development Plans within 6 year Budget, NWHI
Sued 13 times for keeping the country Country, US Supreme Court affirmed procedures
UH Law School, founding Assistant Dean and Director of Legal Education 1973-77
Pro bono attorney kept 138kv high tension electric lines out of Palolo Valley 1978
Mediated on release of American Crew of EP3 Airplane held in Hainan, PR China 2000
Hawaii State Bar Association First Awardee 2010, Out-of-the- Box Education, Damon/Key

30 Years from now, What life, quality of life, do we wish for our grandchildren to grow in?
Acting locally, how can i be an Architect of Society? Should i Preserve and Protect and Plant ILIAHI, Hawaii’s endemic Sandalwood over a million years symbiotically in Hawaii?
Symbolically, does ILIAHI reflect what has happened to Hawaii and Hawaiians past and for our future? Let us start on the next 30 years. What values motivate me, you, us?